The students of BRYANT, STRATTON & PACKARD'S MERCANTILE COLLEGE, at Nos. 18 and 19 Cooper Institute, desiring to express their high regard for the institution and its Faculty, held a meeting at Rom No. 19, on the 15th inst. The meeting was called to order by Mr. Dawson, who stated its object. F. A. Erewer was then chosen Chairman, and P. J. Hawkins Secretary, when, after a free expression of the sentiments of the students, a Committee of Three was appointed to draft resolutions to be presented at the next meeting at which time the following resolutions were read and manimously adopted:

icd. That we, the students in regular attendance at Bry atten & Packard's Mercantile College, recognize in the of the principals and professors of this institution a lauds oftion to elevate the departments of education under the along and a impart to the young men under their charg ble ambition to elevate the departments of education under their supervision, and to impart to the young men under their charge such a thorough and practical education as will qualify them for the duties of business life.

Resolved, That in Mr. S. S. Packard, Resident Principal, we have an earnest friend and competent teacher—one who is thoroughly imbured with a sense of the importance of his profession as d who clearly comprehends its duties—who not only possesses the qualifications of a clear-neaded huniness man, but possesses in an eminent degree, the faculty of imparting his knowledge teachers.

cheers. Resolved, That in Mr. John D. Williams we have a teacher of penmanship who stands at the head of his profession; as a teacher we believe him to have faw equals and no superiors. Resolved, That we congratulate the faculty and each other of the Works. as Professor of Mathematics—a gentleman in whom we have the fullest confidence, and whose instructions we thoroughly ap the fullest confidence, and whose instructions we thoroughly appreciate.

Resolved, That in Mr. H. B. Bryant, senior member of the firm, who has been with us for a few months past, we recognize a gentleman and teacher of no ordinary ability, and that we take the present opportunity to express our heartfelt appreciation of the efforts he has put forth in connection with his partner in establishing the chain of mercanthe colleges extending from New-York on the East to St. Louis on the West, and thus linking together eight of the largest commercial cities of the Union.

Resolved, That in our own individual and personal advancement in the sciences here inculcated, we have the best assurance of the efficiency of this institution, and an earnest of its future happortance among the institutions of this eminently commercial city.

Brooklyn Politics .- THE REPUBLICAN CITY CON-VENTION AND ITS CANDIDATES—No. 3.—Mr. EDITOR: I have no desire to urge opposition to the Republican nominees for City Officers on personal grounds, and will not, therefore, state what particular private individuals this ticket does repre sent. Any intelligent Republican who has watched the course of ovents can easily sift this matter for himself. Suffice to say that it represents a few wealthy individuals in the Eastern as well as in the Western District, and those individuals only who well as in the vestern District, and those individuals only are leaders in every monoply which now oppresses the people. If the people would repudiate these monopolists and the men whom they set up to screen their operations from the scrutiny of the public, let this ticket be repudiated. If the people of the Eastern District wish to strengthen the hands of the men wh have imposed upon them rates of ferriage unequaled in the pas six years, with inferior accommodations, let them vote for Mr. Field and his associates on the (so called) Republican ticket; on the contrary, if they wish to rebuke the unjust, extravagant, and auti-Republican legislation which has been accomplished and anti-Republican legislation which has been accombinated and undertaken in the name of the Republican party, let this coming Chatter election go by default, and let the men who have be-trayed the confidence of a great and magnanimous party be over-taken with a disastrous defeat in the persons of those whom they have put forward as their representatives. "A frost, a killing frost," will alone suffice. Then the destinies of the Republican porty restored to the hands of those who, and obloquy and per-sonal insult from those now claiming to wear the mantle of Re-positionism, first railing the Republican hosts to battle, a career of success will lie open before us, with the chann of corruption into which the party has fallen plainly marked out, thus enabling us to avoid it.

into which the party has fallen plainly marked out, thus enabling us to avoid it.

Kings County Republicanism is, as many of as know, a byword with the Republicans of the State, and its uneaviable character has even extended to the West. A Republican of this city was recently traveling in Michigan, and in Detroit, finding himself in a Republican circle, he was asked the condition and prospects of the Republicans party in New-York. He responded in glowing terms as respects the Republicans of the State; when, mentioning Kings County, he was interrupted with the remark that Kings County had undeubtedly gotten a little ahead of the Western Republicans. "They had not," it was said, "reached the point of giving a Board of Commissioners power to appoint their successors." The traveler, mortified and almost sunned by the force of this disparagement, became silent, and soon after took his leave.

Now, Republicans, let us do something to shake off this disprace. This bill to which the Detroit man referred is the Brooklyn Water bill, which Mr. Field has twice journeyed to Albany to sustain, against the just demands of an indignant people. Fure in his private character, as he undoubtedly is, for this great wrons he should be repudisted, stricken dawn by all who value their political rights, and who would resist exorbitant taxation to fill the pockets of mue partisan hirelings.

ROSA BONHEUR'S GREAT PAINTING.

Presenting every tint and shade and color of the original paint ing, in all of its

EXTRAORDINARY SPLENDOR. The first impressions of a new and superb engraving of Ross Bonheur's celebrated painting of THE HORSE FAIR, printed in beautiful oil colors, are now ready. Its size is nearly two by three feet embracing more than TWENTY DIFFERENT TINTS, SHADES, AND COLORS, and it will present, upon the walls of the parior, drawing-room or art gallery, all the splen did effect of a superb oil-painting. So rich and costly an engraving, requiring so much artistic labor and skill in its production has never before been sold in this country or Europe for less than $5 to $10 per copy; yet, assured of the sale of a very large edition; we shall furnish them at the low price of

$1 50 PER COPY, delivered, free of charge, at any Post-Office in the United States and an extra copy for a club of five. We will furnish the above engraving, with the UNITED STATES JOURNAL one year, for $2, and an extra copy of each for a club of five. This is a great offer, for the Journal is alone worth more than the money. The Christian Advocate says: "It is one of the largest, best, and cheapest periodicals in this country. Its reading matter is a happy combination of scientific and recreative articles, and it abounds in good engravings. will furnish it, with Dickens's ALL THE YEAR ROUND one year, for $3.50, and an extra copy of each for a club of five.

The London Times said of the painting, of which the engraving is a copy: "On standing before it all preconceived ideas vanish. We have a splendidly luminous effect; the most powerful, natural, and truly elegant painting that has been exhibited in this country for many years past."

William Ross Wallace, on receipt of a copy, wrote a beautiful poem, from which we quote the following lines:

"Fire-eyed Arab of the desert!
In your being's daily med
Are you made the only lover
Of the glorious galant steed!
Do you only prize his fleetness,
Lightning-like along the plain—
There rejoicing in the tempest
Of his wildly-streaming mane!

No!—Behold the eager millions
Of our own majestic race
To this miracle of Honnauca
Giving, in their households, place?
No!—The Anglo-Saxon's spirit
Loves the charger strong and brave,
Strides bim with a steel-armed trinmpl
As the steamship strides the wave!

Nature with entitle the eye;
Lo: the mighty Norman charger
Rearing in his pride on high.
He has right to be exultant—
Splendid son of splendid sire,
Who, of oid, hore LION-RICHARD Storming through the battle-fire!

F. P. Rosaiter, the distinguished artist, says of the engraving t is a spirited translation of the original, and is admirable "It is a spirited translation of the original, and is admirably adapted to promote the interests of at."

The Rev. Dr. Prime, of The New-York Observer, says; "I prize it as a most successful and beautiful work of art."

The Rev. Dr. Stevens, of The Christian Advocate, says: "It is worthy of the fine original. I could give it no better praise. The public cannot fail to appreciate and compensate your enterprise in providing so superb a work of art so low."

ALSO, JUST READY: AGAINST WIND AND TIDE. By Hoime Lee, Author of "Sylvan Hoit's Daughter," &c., &c. From The Philadelphia North American.

"This is one of the best novels of the season. The authorshows an extended knowledge of the world, a keen appreciation of character, and a large compass of expression. The plot is well conceived and naturally developed—the diction, with some exceptions, is pure and vigorous—the ideas are always sensible, often graceful, and sometimes informed with the inmost soul of poetry—and the scenes and occurrences all seem natural, while ome of them are truly and touchingly pathetic. We do not envy the sensibilities of the man to whose eyes the perusa of some of these pages would not bring a dewy dimness, the appy, healthful sympathy with sorrow."

From The Springfield Republican.

"It has all the strength and power of 'Adam Bede' finement and grace which that book lacks."

From The Philadelphia Press.
"The author writes with spirit and force, and never the interest of the story flag."

By CHARLES D. KIRK.

One Vol., $1.

From The Philadelphia Press.

"The enther is Charles D. Kirk of Louisville, Kentucky, and may be congratulated upon having written one of the very best stories of home-life in Kentucky ever submitted to the public. So truth-like are the incidents, so much vraisemolance is there in the characters, that we suspect there is as much reality as fiction in the story."

Extract from Preface:
"These Poems were written under the pressure of the events they indicate, after a residence in taly of so many years that the present rhumph of great principles is hightened to the writer's feedings by the disastrons issue of the last movement, witnessed from 'Ceaa Gridd' windows' in 1842. "What I have written has simply been written because I love truth and justice, quand meme, 'more than Pinto' and Pinto's country, more than Dante and Dante's country, more than Dante and Dante's country."
